How your information will be used

When submitting your data in application for an internship with the IBA, you are required to read and understand the information contained in our Interns Privacy Notice. We will only store information as provided by you in your application, including any relevant sensitive data as volunteered by you. If you have applied for an internship at one of our locations outside the UK, your data will be securely transferred to the relevant Office. Your data will only be stored by the IBA for a maximum period of six months if your application is unsuccessful, and up to 7 years if you successfully secure a place (in line with financial regulations). Any data we retain can be amended by you at any time upon request to the Intern Programme Manager.

More details, including your rights, can be found in the IBA Privacy Policy - www.ibanet.org/web-privacy-policy.aspx. You can contact us at any time if you have any comments or questions regarding our handling of your personal data at dataprotection@int-bar.org, or International Bar Association, 53-64 Chancery Lane, London, WC2A 1QS.
