For Conference delegates from jurisdictions where CPD/CLE is mandatory, the IBA will provide a Certificate of Attendance for the Conference. Subject to CPD/CLE requirements, Conference delegates can use this to obtain the relevant number of hours' accreditation. The number of CPD/CLE hours available may vary depending on the rules applied by the members' bar association/law society on time recording criteria. A Certificate of Attendance is available to Conference delegates on request. Please ask at the IBA conference registration desk for information on how to obtain the certificate.

IBA Harassment Policy

IBA conferences provide unrivalled professional development and network-building opportunities for international legal practitioners and their professional associates. The IBA values the participation of every delegate and member of the IBA and wants all attendees to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, all conference attendees are expected to show respect and courtesy to other attendees, IBA staff and those involved with hosting the events throughout the conference and at all conference events, receptions, and parties, whether officially organised by the IBA or others. All delegates, guests, attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff and volunteers at any IBA event are required to conform to the IBA Harassment Policy.

Friday continued

1400–1445

Wellbeing is real!

The stresses and strains of being a lawyer have long been identified but have been transformed into a major issue as a result of Covid. The good news is that more firms are taking wellbeing more seriously but are we doing enough and what do the associates think? Money is no longer the solution to attracting and retaining talent. There needs to be more!

Moderator

Jelita Pandjaitan Linklaters, Singapore

Panellists

Hanim Hamzah ZICO Law, Singapore; Co-Chair, IBA Law Firm Management Committee

Kirsty Lim Senior Legal Counsel (Regional), Lazada Group, Singapore

Dr Jonathan Marshall Jonathan Marshall, Singapore

1445 – 1515

Are we finally adopting technology?

As firms face pressures from clients, courts and even governments to adopt legal technology, we see an increase in spending on legal technology. However, does that necessarily translate into an effective adoption of technology? We speak with some of our panellists who have been involved with digital transformation efforts within their firms to uncover what pitfalls lie ahead on the path to adopting technology.

Moderator

Rodney Yap Adjunct Faculty, Singapore Management University, Singapore

Panellists

Bazul Ashhab Oon & Bazul, Singapore

Arti Daryanani Tan Rajah & Cheah, Singapore

Janice Goh Clifford Chance, Singapore

1515 – 1540 Refreshment break

1540 – 1625

What will dispute resolution look like in the future – and will clients and law firms like it?

For the leaders of tomorrow's practices, getting a good understanding of how businesses are likely to resolve disputes moving forward is becoming increasingly challenging given the rise of international commercial courts and international mediation whilst time and costs issues continue to plague international arbitration. At the same time, there may be a need to build an all-rounded team given the increasing use of multi-tiered dispute resolution clauses. These shifting trends are exacerbated by the impact of technology which the pandemic has foisted upon courts, tribunals, lawyers and clients alike. This session will explore what practice leaders should look out for in the dispute resolution space.

Moderator

Darius Chan Associate Professor of Law, SMU Yong Pung How School of Law, Singapore

Panellists

Jason Chan SC Allen & Gledhill, Singapore

Sapna Jhangiani QC Attorney-General's Chambers of Singapore, Singapore

Aditya Singh White & Case, Singapore

1625 – 1725

Do clients think the lawyers/the law firm they use are fit for the future?

This panel will be made up of leading general counsel from both Singapore-based companies and multinational corporations. They will provide their insight into how law firms are doing both generally and particularly with regard to the future. Do our clients believe that we are ready for the future and can serve them well into that future? We will hear the answer!

Moderator

Wai King Ng WongPartnership, Singapore

Panellists

Pek Siok Lan General Counsel, Temasek International, Singapore

Lam Chee Kin Managing Director and Head of Legal, Compliance & Secretariat, DBS Group, Singapore

Yan Jun Wang General Counsel, SEA group, Singapore

1725 – 1730 Closing remarks

The IBA, its officers and staff accept no responsibility for any views expressed, presentations or materials produced by delegates or speakers at the Conference.

The organisers may at any time, with or without giving notice, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, cancel or postpone the conference, change its venue or any of the other published particulars, or withdraw any invitation to attend. In any case, neither the organisers nor any of their officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person, nor will they return any money paid to them in connection with the conference unless they are satisfied not only that the money in question remains under their control but also that the person who paid it has been unfairly prejudiced (as to which, decision shall be in their sole and unfettered discretion and, when announced, final and conclusive).

Promotional literature

Please note that no individual or organisation may display or distribute publicity material or other printed matter during the Conference, unless by prior arrangement with the IBA. Organisations and companies wishing to discuss promotional opportunities should contact the IBA Sponsorship Department at sponsorship@int-bar.org.

If we obtain the benefit of any tax credit or other relief by reference to any such deductions or withholdings, then we shall repay to you such amount as, after such repayment has been made, will leave us in no worse position than we would have been had no such deductions or withholdings been required.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a 'first come, first served' basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The waiting list for a conference will close once it has reached ten per cent of the conference venue capacity, as it is very unlikely a place will become available. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.

Cancellation of registration or social functions

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 13 May 2022, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 13 May 2022 will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Please note that the IBA will however offer a full refund if you are required to cancel your registration due to Covid related reasons; we will require written confirmation of your cancellation by the end of business on the first day of the conference.

Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Upon submission of your completed Conference registration form to the IBA you are considered 'registered' pending payment. Please note that the cancellation terms and conditions as indicated will apply as soon as your registration is received.

Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the 'cancellation of registration' clause included in the 'Information' section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing at the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

International Bar Association

the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world's leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients' interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Law Firm Management Committee Overview

The Committee's diverse membership is drawn from the profession around the world and from firms of all sizes and areas of practice.

The Committee pursues its mission through a number of activities including the annual IBA conference at which the Committee regularly offers a wide range of sessions addressing current top-of-mind issues; regional conferences, generally in coordination with the IBA's regional fora, which address current law firm management issues of regional interest; webinar programs; e-bulletins; and our publications and other material accessible to members on our website.

IBA Asia Pacific Regional Forum Overview

The Asia Pacific Forum offers fantastic opportunities to establish contact with legal experts in and outside of the region, practising in many different areas of law, and to keep abreast of legal business developments in the region.

In addition to offering an unrivalled opportunity to establish contact among lawyers within and outside the region, and with acknowledged experts on different areas of law, specialist Forum activities provide an unparalleled opportunity to keep abreast of legal business developments in the region. Members also benefit from excellent working relations with national Bars, the Inter-Pacific Bar Association and LAWASIA.
